U.S. Indian Chief Seeks Redress for Arrest While Visiting in Canada

DECLARES HE WAS HELD IN CELL AT HULL

Matter to be Taken to Secretary of State This Week

ALBANY, N.Y., Dec. 8.—The case of a United States Indian chief who declares he was wrongfully jailed in Quebec prison will be carried to the secretary of state by the United States attorney general today.

Friends of the chief, Clinton Rickard, peace-time member of the Tuscarora, have begun a move through diplomatic channels to procure release of the Indian. Rickard, 40, is representing at Washington, with the U.S. attorney general, a friend of the chief, and a man who has been arrested several times with Indian affairs.

Rickard charges that while he was at Montreal, Quebec, to attend a court case on December 1, he was arrested on a warrant sworn to by the U.S. attorney general, and taken to the Quebec prison. He was held in a cell at Hull, Quebec, for several days before being released.

Father at 80—Magician!

Charles Anderson, 80-year-old former circus magician, his 71-year-old wife and their baby are shown below. Anderson says he is the "prettiest dad" in the world. The couple were married Nov. 5, 1928, after Anderson had retired from circus life, and they live in Great Bend, Kan.

last week it flipped at the end of the 150 paces for each of us shall try to pick the lion and down the other.

PLEASANTLY FADE OUT

That was evident as soon as we sat down at the bridge table. The dinner pleasures faded and we settled down immediately to the first skirmish of the game.

For my part at least I am determined that this shall be a sportsmanlike contest, but I expect others to give me no respite.

In spite of my first dinner which Mr. Culbertson served to the complete satisfaction of all 19 except the card "deck" was "cleared for play."

Because the opening session of the match is being played in Mr. Culbertson's apartment, I have been made to "the spider and the fly" but I do not propose to be a juicy morsel.

After the dinner came some radio speeches by the four contestants and the match of the bridge and 19 opened the card "deck" was "cleared for play."

VARIATIONS ANNOUNCED

Before the first bid was made Mr. Culbertson announced certain variations which he and I agreed to use during the match. Of course, they will adhere mainly to the "standard" system, but he will add to it some variations which he has picked up in his travels.

While his side will not go to the limit, considering the fact that he is a diamond over one club as an absolute rule, he will be willing to reveal the original hand on the slightest excuse.

Just at the North said, which gave my partner, South, Mr. Culbertson, was asked what he had in mind.

It was clear to me, Mr. Culbertson, that he was not going to play one spade, but he was going to play one spade and one heart.

He said, "I am going to play one spade and one heart. What do you think?"

I bid three no-trump. Mr. Culbertson asked the hand. We talked him over and made the contract and were set one trick.

FORMAL TOGS AT RECEPTION TO BE TABOO

Changes in Democratic Style in Hall of Fame for New Year's

OTTAWA, Dec. 8.—Formality which marked the New Year's reception in the Hall of Fame for the year of 1931 will be discarded this year.

The change in the style of public reception means that instead of a formal New Year's reception, the Governor General will be holding the reception in the Hall of Fame for the year of 1931.

It will not be necessary this year to wear formal dress on every one of the three rubbers.

Long before the evening affair was called at 8 p.m. the Boyd theatre was crowded with a large number of people.

Metrical evidence was called and the case of the diamond, doing the trick for the prosecution. Whitney was taken down on the stand in his own defence, the examination and cross examination requiring almost two hours.

Chicago to Aid in Big Regina Grain Fair for Year 1933

Officials of Century of Progress Will Co-operate With Canadian Efforts to be Held in Same Period

REGINA, Sask., Dec. 8.—Officials of the Century of Progress, the world's fair to be held at Chicago in 1933, will co-operate to the fullest extent with the world's grain exhibition and conference to be held at Regina in the same year.

MOONEY RETURNS FROM CHICAGO

This was the word brought to the city yesterday by John A. Mooney, managing director of the world's grain exhibition and conference upon his return after attending the international livestock and grain exposition at Chicago.

Mr. Mooney stated that those in charge of the world's fair at Chicago do not view the postponement of the world's grain exhibition and conference to 1933 as a question of the year of progress. "They see in our world's grain exhibition and conference an outstanding benefit to the agricultural world," he said.

Mooney was also given Mr. Mooney's return to the city of Regina, the officials of the United States planned for Regina on the original dates of the world's grain exhibition, will now be made at the time of the exhibition.

Interest in the forthcoming exhibition was also shown by the officials of the United States planned for Regina on the original dates of the world's grain exhibition, will now be made at the time of the exhibition.

LABOR FAVORS CONCRETE SPAN AT RAT CREEK

By This Method City Could Employ More Labor is Contention

Another suggestion as to the type of structure which should be in connection with the building of the bridge over Rat Creek revolved in the minds of the members of the Trades and Labor Council as a result of a meeting of that organization which was held at the city hall. It was suggested that the proposed bridge should be constructed of concrete, and that it be suggested in some quarters, a "fill" bridge.

It was pointed out at the meeting that the city would employ more labor in the construction of concrete bridges at Calgary being more costly than the steel bridges. The secretary, stated that this work could also be carried out during the winter months, leading statements to the contrary.

Despite Carl Berg's efforts on behalf of the citizens' unemployment committee, the council decided that the (Mr. Berg) had given unprofitable of his time in assisting this organization, and that the council should not have the work was done. Mr. Berg is president of the Labor council and chairman of the city's unemployment committee.

The council favored the suggestion made by the Transmitters, under the name of the Citizens' Unemployment Committee, and the city became affiliated with the
